THE OPPOSITION

1894: Bristol South End Football Club are formed and play their games at St. John's Lane, Bedminster.
1897: The club is renamed Bristol City Football Club and made into a limited company after a famous meeting in the Albert Hall, Bedminster. A decision was made to employ a manager, so contact was made with Sam Hollis at Woolwich Arsenal.
1900: Bristol City FC merged with Bedminster FC, a professional club which played their matches a mile away at Ashton Gate.
1901: City were elected to the Football League Division Two and played their first game on 7th September away to Blackpool, winning 2-0.
1904: After one season (1900/01) playing at both St. John's Lane and Ashton Gate and then three seasons back at St. John's Lane, the decision was made to adopt Ashton Gate as the new home of Bristol City FC.
1906: Division Two champions of season 1905/06, which included a club record 30 League wins.
1909: FA Cup finalists losing 1-0 to Manchester United.
1911: Relegated to Division Two.
1922: Relegated to Division Three (South).
1923: Division Three (South) Champions 1922/23.
1924: Relegated to Division Three (South).
1927: Division Three (South) Champions 1926/27, scoring a record number of goals in a season: 104.
1932: Relegated to Division Three (South).
1935: A club record attendance sees City take on Preston North End in the fifth round of the FA
1938: Division Three (South) runners-up 1937/38, but promotion was not gained, as only the Champions were promoted.
1941: Grandstand totally destroyed during air raids.
1945: City beat Cardiff City 2-1 in War-time Cup game after a 'sudden death' winner in the 202nd minute.
1947: Don Clark sets a new club record after scoring 36 League goals in the 1946/47 season.
